

Pink lines indicate blocks that did not approve proposed parking restrictions.

These blocks will not have parking signs erected unless block residents petition the City with times/days for restrictions.